Junk Food & Wine Pairing

with Leslie Arduser-Brogan

Do you think wine must be paired with “real” food? Are your sojourns into junk food nirvana only accompanied by beer or soda? Come take a sip on the less serious side of wine/food pairing and be enlightened. And, no, we’re not talking Barefoot or Yellowtail here (apologies to those who fancy them) - just because your snacks aren’t five-star doesn’t mean your wine can’t be!

Leslie holds Level 2 Certification from the Wine & Spirit Education Trust out of London, UK, and is a member of The Wine Century Club. She is also former Wholesale Manager and Brand Ambassador for Casa Larga Vineyards. In those roles, she was often called upon as substitute media liaison for the winery’s owner and was available as a wine presenter for hire. As a Super Taster, Super Smeller and all-around foodie, Leslie is continually fascinated by the interplay between food and wine!
